SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 8: 5-8,14-17; 1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

“NOT ORPHANS, BUT LIVING IN THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH”

Dear Brothers and Sisters, as we journey through this vibrant Easter season, the Church warmly invites us to delve deeper into the beautiful mystery of Christ’s living presence among us. Today’s readings overflow with movement and inspiration: the Gospel extends beyond boundaries, suffering transforms into hope, and Jesus prepares His disciples for a presence that is more intimate than ever before. This Sunday is particularly special as it coincides with Mother’s Day and falls within the month dedicated to Mary. It serves as a poignant reminder that we are never alone. Just as a loving mother nurtures, guides, and protects her children, so too does God care for us. We are graced with the gift of the Holy Spirit and the maternal intercession of Mary, Our Lady of Light, who continually leads us to her Son. To all our beloved mothers, we wish you a very blessed Mother’s Day!

“I Will Not Leave You Orphans”

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus speaks tenderly, saying, “I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.” [Jn 14:18] This promise resonates deeply; it is not merely words of comfort but a profound assurance from our Saviour. Jesus is telling us that His departure isn’t a sign of abandonment; rather, it’s the beginning of transformation. He sends us “another Advocate,” the Spirit of Truth, who will dwell within us, igniting a flame of faith that can never be extinguished. St. Augustine reflects beautifully on this promise: “The Holy Spirit makes us lovers of God, and by that love, God dwells in us.” To love Jesus is to live out that love through obedience expressed in acts of forgiveness, service, and unwavering fidelity. The Spirit empowers us to embody that love, enabling us to live as Christ lived. So let us continually pray for the Holy Spirit; not because He is distant or absent, but because we need our hearts to be ever more open to His gentle presence. As St. Basil the Great reminds us, “Through the Spirit, we are restored to paradise, we ascend to the kingdom of heaven, and we are adopted as children.”

The Spirit at Work: From Samaria to Our Lives

In the Acts of the Apostles, we encounter a stunning moment in history: the Gospel finds its way into Samaria, a region marked by division and long-standing enmity with the Jews. Remarkably, amidst this backdrop, “there was great joy in that city” [Acts 8:8]. This reminds us that God’s grace is a force that transcends barriers. What initially began as persecution turned into a remarkable opportunity for growth. Philip boldly proclaims Christ, miracles unfold, and hearts are transformed. Yet, even in this vibrant scene, something vital is missing; the Apostles arrive, lay hands on the new believers, and they receive the Holy Spirit. This pivotal act teaches us two essential truths: Firstly, faith is inherently communal, not merely individualistic; and secondly, the Holy Spirit is indispensable for a fulfilled Christian life. St. Cyprian beautifully encapsulates this harmony: “He cannot have God as Father who does not have the Church as Mother.” The laying on of hands is not just a ritual; it signifies our apostolic continuity and unity, reminding us that we are part of something far greater, the living Body of Christ.

Witnessing Hope That Speaks

St. Peter invites us into a powerful yet gentle mission: “Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope” [1 Pet 3:15]. Important to note, he does not urge us to argue or impose. Instead, he advises us to share with gentleness, reverence, and a clear conscience. True Christian witness shines not through volume but through luminosity. It's reflected in how we endure suffering, love selflessly in difficult times, and remain anchored in peace during uncertainties. Indeed, it is "better to suffer for doing good... than for doing evil" [1 Pet 3:17]. In Christ, we find the ultimate example: "He suffered once for sins... that He might lead you to God" [1 Pet 3:18]. As St. John Chrysostom wisely observes, "Nothing draws others more powerfully than a life that endures suffering with hope." Our trials, once united with Christ's suffering, are not futile; they transform into channels of grace for us and for those around us.

The True Measure of Faith

Jesus clearly states, "Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me" [Jn 14:21]. Love is demonstrated not merely through words, but through deliberate choices: opting for forgiveness when it's tough, choosing honesty when the truth is hard to bear, and committing to service when it's inconvenient. This is where the Holy Spirit plays an essential role. He is present not only in extraordinary signs but also in the quiet moments of daily life: providing clarity in confusion, courage in fear, and peace amidst turmoil. As St. Irenaeus famously writes, "Where the Spirit of God is, there is the Church, and every kind of grace."

A Mother's Presence

As we honour mothers in this month dedicated to Mary, we catch a glimpse of God's nurturing care. A true mother never abandons her child; instead, she journeys alongside them, nurturing and protecting them. Mary embodies this perfectly. At the foot of the cross, Jesus entrusts her to us: "Behold your mother" [Jn 19:27]. In doing so, she becomes the Mother of all believers, gently guiding us toward her Son. Just as the Holy Spirit dwells within us, Mary walks beside us, offering her unwavering support. St. Ambrose aptly notes, "Mary is the model of the Church in faith, charity, and perfect union with Christ." In our most challenging moments, we are reassured: we are not orphans, we are not alone, and we are profoundly loved.

Living as People of the Spirit

In closing, this Sunday's readings encourage us to reflect deeply on our own lives:

- Do I actively invite the Holy Spirit into my daily routines?
- Do others witness hope in the way I live?
- Am I able to recognise God at work, even amid difficulties?
- Is my love for Jesus evident in my actions?

Let us embrace the promise Jesus offers: "Because I live, you also will live" [Jn 14:19]. May we walk in that vibrant life with courage, gentleness, and unwavering trust. With the loving intercession of Our Lady of Light, may we be continually led closer to her Son.

"Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love."

A blessed and wonderful Mother's Day to all Mothers.

CALLED BY NAME- WALKING IN THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

OUR LADY OF LIGHT PARISH “I am the light of the world.” [John 8:12]

OUR IDENTITY IN THREE NAMES

Dear brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Light, it’s crucial to remember our identity as a parish community and the meaning of our patron saints. Names hold profound significance; they embody our history, belonging, and mission. In families, names often connect us to our heritage, embody cherished values, or honour ancestors. They declare, “You belong to something greater.”

In Scripture, when God changes a name, it marks a transformation in identity and purpose: Abram becomes Abraham, the father of nations; Simon becomes Peter, the foundation of the Church. These shifts highlight a vital truth: God’s call is an invitation to a new identity. God knows us personally: “I have called you by name, you are mine” [Isaiah 43:1]. Your name and life are significant; you are known, loved, and sent.

From the early Church, Christians named children after saints for spiritual protection and inspiration. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that a patron saint models charity and provides intercession (CCC 2156).

- We are under their spiritual guidance.
- We strive to reflect their virtues.
- We unite with the communion of saints.

As Hebrews 12:1 reminds us, “we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses.” The saints are not distant; they accompany us on our journey of faith.

Our Lady of Light — Leads to Christ: Mary guides us to Jesus, the Light. “Do whatever He tells you.” [John 2:5] We are called to walk in His light and share it.

St. Catherine of Siena — Living the Truth: A witness of courage, prayer, and love for the Church. We are called to stand firm in faith, speak truth with love, and live deeply in prayer.

St. Pascal Baylon — Loving the Eucharist: A humble servant devoted to Christ in the Eucharist. We are called to love the Eucharist, live humbly, and find holiness in daily life.

ONE MISSION-Led by Mary, we walk in the Light of Christ, live the Truth with courage, and are nourished by the Eucharist.

OUR CALL AS A PARISH-“You are the light of the world.” [Matthew 5:14] We are called to shine Christ’s light, live the truth boldly, and stay rooted in the Eucharist.

HONOUR OUR PATRONS

Saint Catherine of Siena, celebrated on April 29th, was a woman of Truth & Courage.

Saint Pascal Baylon, celebrated on May 17th, was a man of Eucharistic Love.

Reading and meditating on the Word of God is a devotion that opens our hearts to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and draws us closer into communion with the whole Church, especially when we meditate on the Scripture passages used in the Mass. For more than 15 years, thousands of people across the United States have viewed the daily reflection videos found on the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. These treasured, high-quality videos are among the faith-enriching programs made possible with your support of the Catholic Communication Campaign.

Food Pantry Volunteers Needed

The Food Pantry is in need of men volunteers to help with deliveries and on Pantry day. Deliveries are every other Tuesday's from 9-12pm at St. Catherine's. Food Pantry is on Wednesday's 12pm-2pm at St. Catherine's. We are looking for men because of heavy lifting is involved on both days. If interested please contact Junie Hopkinson at 917.261.1808 or the rectory 718.468.3511.

Heart to Hands Ministry Donation

Our Lady of Light's crochet and knitting group, Heart to Hands, is bringing joy and comfort to women and children of Hour Children this holiday season. With over two large bags filled with handmade crochet, knit, and loom hats, gloves and scarves, their gifts will keep the children and adults warm.

Heart to Hands now meets at the Best Life Senior Center on Farmers Blvd., after relocating from St. Pascal's parish hall to ensure accessibility for all members.

A special thank you goes to the Loomers of Rochdale Village Library, whose generous donation of loom-crafted items added even more love to this collection.

Together, these groups embody the true meaning of community—hands and hearts working in harmony to uplift others. If you would like to donate yarn to Heart to Hands, please contact the rectory.

“What Do You Have in Your Hands?”

CHRISTIAN GIVING IS EUCHARISTIC

When the Lord asked Moses, “What is that in your hand?” [Exodus 4:2], He invited Moses to recognise the power of what he already possessed. The staff he carried, ordinary and shaped by daily life, became extraordinary when he returned it to God in trust. This poignant question resonates throughout Scripture and finds its deepest meaning in the Eucharist, whose very essence is thanksgiving.

Time and again, God begins not with abundance, but with what is already held in grateful hands. A widow may possess only a small jar of oil, yet when she offers it in faith, it never runs dry. A young boy provides five loaves and two fish, and in Jesus' hands, they transform into nourishment for thousands. Another widow places two small coins into the temple treasury, and the Lord sees in her gift the fullness of a grateful heart. In every instance, the gift may be small, yet the offering remains total. And in each case, thanksgiving unlocks God's transformative power. This is the mystery we enter every time we approach the altar.

The bread and wine we offer are described as the “fruit of the earth and work of human hands.” They gather the ordinary substance of our lives; our labour, time, resources, joys, and struggles- and present them before God in gratitude. As St. Irenaeus taught, in offering these gifts, the Church returns creation itself to the Creator with thanksgiving, and God responds by filling them with His divine life.

At the heart of the Eucharist stands Christ Himself, who takes, gives thanks, breaks, and distributes. Thanksgiving is not merely spoken; it is enacted. What is offered is not lost but transformed. What is broken is not destroyed but shared. St. Augustine reminds us that at the altar, we offer not just bread and wine, but ourselves. Our lives, like the staff of Moses, the oil of the widow, the loaves of the child, and the coins of the poor, are taken up into Christ's perfect thanksgiving to the Father. This is why Christian giving transcends mere practicality; it is Eucharistic. It flows from gratitude. St. John Chrysostom teaches that true generosity is born when the heart recognises that all it possesses is a gift, and that nothing placed in God's hands is ever wasted.

Each Eucharist gently asks us again: What do you have in your hands today? What we bring may appear small, but when offered in thanksgiving, it becomes united to Christ's self-gift. In His hands, our humble offerings become blessings for many. May the Eucharist continually transform us into a people of thanksgiving; grateful in prayer, generous in providing, and confident that God can achieve more with our gifts than we can ever imagine.

Liturgical Committee Our Lady of Light Parish

IMPORTANT PARISH REMINDERS

The Sacrament of Baptism for Infants

Parents may contact the parish office to arrange for the baptism of their child at least one month in advance. Infant Baptisms are held on the third Sunday of the month at one of our weekend masses. Parents must be registered in Our Lady of Light or the parish they attend and participate in a Baptismal Preparation class.

Religious Education for Children and Youth:

Location and Times: Our Parish Faith Formation program takes place on Sunday mornings, in person this year. For more information, please contact , Deacon Marcial Cordon Director of Faith Formation, at 718 528-1220 or email at dre101269@diobrook.org

Ages and Requirements: Our program welcomes children and youth who are three years old through High School. We accept and prepare children and youth who have not received the Sacraments.

Parental Responsibilities: Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, reminds us in his new General Directory for Catechesis that those being catechized can live their life in a simple and spontaneous way. We are called to accompany each other on a journey toward Christ, with parents/guardians taking the lead for their children. In addition to having an active participation in the faith formation of their children, Parents or Guardians are also expected to attend Mass with their children and to attend parental preparations for Sacraments.

Reception of Sacraments for School Aged Children: Parents who would like for their child to receive the Sacraments must register them in our parish Sacramental Preparation Program. Our Program requires that children attend and prepare for two complete and consecutive academic years prior to the reception of each Sacrament. The Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion is received beginning in grade 2 and up. The Sacrament of Confirmation requires attendance and preparation in our 2 year Confirmation Sacramental Preparation program. Confirmation preparation begins in grades 7 & 8. For each of the Sacraments, there is an extra fee, to cover the costs of the ceremonies. For more information, please contact, Deacon Marcial Cordon Director of Religious Education.

Reception of Sacraments for Adults (RCIA): Our Parish offers the RCIA program for those, ages 16 years and older, who are interested in becoming Catholic. It is also for those who have been baptized and in need of receiving the Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation. The Rite of Christian Initiation program is offered year- round and is also available for children ages 8 and older through the Rite of Christian Initiation Adapted for Children program. Please contact Deacon Marcial Cordon , Director of Faith Formation to register or for more information.

Continuing Faith Formation for Adults: Our parish provides opportunities for lifelong faith formation through small faith sharing groups and bible studies. Please check our website, bulletin or contact the Faith Formation Office for more information.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Since Catholic marriage requires a time of preparation, arrangements should begin at least six months before the proposed date of the wedding to allow for the Marriage Preparation Program. Registered, participating and contributing parishioners, not a third party, may contact the parish office to begin the process.

Pastoral Care of the Sick

If you are entering a hospital for surgery, experiencing a prolonged or serious illness, or are very weak due to advancement of age, call the parish office to arrange for the Sacraments of reconciliation, communion and anointing at home. We can also arrange for a Eucharistic Minister to continue to visit you with the Blessed Sacrament. We are here to serve you, please call.

Funerals

The family member or friend handling the funeral arrangements are asked to contact the pastor to arrange a consolation visit from one of the Priests. He will help you with any questions you may have with planning the Wake and Funeral Mass. The Parish wishes to be with you at this moment of need, all other arrangements involving the church must be initiated by the funeral director. Strict adherence to the Roman Catholic Ritual for Funerals will be followed in all parish involved activities..

Proof of Parish Participation

References and proof of parish residency for both civil and religious purposes can only be provided for registered parishioners. Catholic Schools offering a discount for children of parents who are active members of their parish usually require that the family be registered at least six months previously in their home parish. It is also assumed that the children are registered in the religious education program of the home parish.

Welcome
New Members

To all our Visitors: We hope you felt at home at the Feast of our Lord with your brothers & sister in Christ. We pray you will join us again! Letters proving membership for reference, referrals, recommendations or for any other reason, will only be provided to registered parishioners. If we don't know you , we can't vouch for you!
