THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

Exodus 34:4-6,8-9; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18

“DRAWN INTO THE LIFE OF THE TRINITY”

Dear Our Lady of Light family, A very blessed solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. With the celebration of Pentecost, the Church completed the great Easter journey: from Ash Wednesday through Lent, Holy Week, Easter, Ascension, and the coming of the Holy Spirit. Now, as we begin Ordinary Time, the Church places before us the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This is fitting, because before we continue the Church's mission in the world, we are brought back to its source: the life of the Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Trinity Sunday reminds us that the Christian life is not only about believing truths about God, but about being drawn into God's own life and love.

Why Do We Celebrate Trinity Sunday?

We celebrate Trinity Sunday because the Trinity is at the heart of Christian faith. Christianity is not simply belief in “a god,” but in the God who has revealed Himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned.” [John 3:16–18] These words lead us into the mystery we celebrate today: the Father sends the Son in love for the salvation of the world, and that saving love is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is not an abstract puzzle. The Trinity is the living God drawing us into communion.

The Catechism teaches that “the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life” [CCC 234]. In simple language, this means that God is Father, the Creator who gives life; God is the Son, Jesus Christ, who reveals the Father and saves us; and God is the Holy Spirit, who dwells within us, guiding and sanctifying us. Not three gods, but one God in three Persons, perfectly united in love. St Augustine wrote, “If you see love, you see the Trinity.” The Trinity, then, is not a mathematical problem to be solved, but the mystery of divine love: eternal self giving, eternal relationship, eternal communion.

The Trinity and the Church's Mission

Because God is communion, the Church's mission is also a mission of communion. After Pentecost, the Church is sent into the world, not simply to maintain activities or structures, but to draw humanity into the life of God. At the Last Supper, Jesus prayed, “As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us” [John 17:21]. This is one of the great truths of Christianity: God desires not only that we worship Him, but that we share in His divine life. The Church is most faithful to her mission when she reflects the love of the Father, the grace of the Son, and the unity of the Holy Spirit. For this reason, the early Christians were known by their love, forgiveness, and care for the poor. As St Cyprian said, the Church is “a people made one by the unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.”

Called into Communion with the Trinity

If the Church's mission is to lead us into the life of God, then the Christian life cannot be reduced to rules or outward practice alone. Jesus says, “Abide in me as I abide in you” [John 15:4]. To abide means to remain, to dwell, to live in a deep and lasting friendship with Him. Later, Jesus prays to the respond, “Amen,” we are affirming our faith not only in Christ's presence in the sacrament but also in Christ living within His Church. Saint Augustine beautifully expressed this idea: “Be what you see, and receive what you are, the Body of Christ.” This communion should influence how we live with one another; it breaks down walls of division and teaches us to recognise Christ in our brothers and sisters. We cannot truly receive the Body of Christ while refusing to offer love, forgiveness, reconciliation, or concern for others. This is why Jesus teaches, “If you bring your gift to the altar and there recall that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there ... first be reconciled” [Matthew 5:23-24]. The sign of peace before Communion is more than a mere gesture; it is a call to genuine reconciliation and unity within our parish and our homes.

The Eucharist and the Life of the Parish

A parish draws its life from the Eucharist. In communities that cherish this gift, faith, charity, and mission thrive. A vibrant Eucharistic parish is characterised not only by beautiful liturgies but also by hearts transformed by Christ. Pope St. John Paul II stated, “The Church draws her life from the Eucharist.” This truth has practical implications for us. The mystery of the Eucharist cannot be confined to the walls of the church building. If we receive Christ at Mass but fail to recognise Him in the poor, the lonely, the suffering, and our neighbours, we have not fully understood what we celebrate. Pope Francis reminds us, “A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is intrinsically fragmented.” This sacrament must shape how we live at home, at work, in our families, and in society. After every Mass, we are sent forth to be Christ's presence in the world.

Eucharistic Adoration- Remaining with Jesus

From the earliest days, Christians reserved the Eucharist for the sick and imprisoned, leading to the practice of Eucharistic adoration. This devotion invites us to be with Jesus, mirroring the beloved disciple's closeness to Him. In silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we find healing, strength, and transformation. Saint Teresa of Calcutta beautifully stated: “When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now.” Adoration also prepares us for mission, teaching us to be broken bread for others in love and service.

Preparing Ourselves Worthily

Receiving the sacrament of Holy Communion is a profound gift that requires sincere preparation. We are called to examine our hearts, repent, and renew our commitment to discipleship. Accepting Communion means inviting the Lord to live, love, speak, and serve through us. Afterwards, our words and actions should reflect Christ, allowing others to encounter Him through us.

In Conclusion, dear family of Our Lady of Light, each Eucharist invites us into a transformative encounter with the Risen Christ. As we gather at His altar, let us come with reverence and gratitude. May our parish embody the spirit of the Eucharist not only in worship but also in unity, compassion, forgiveness, and service. Having received the Body of Christ, may we live as His hands and feet in the world. “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.” [John 6:56]

May our lives always be lit up by the Eucharist through the intercession of St. Pascal Baylon.

Heart to Hands Ministry Donation

Our Lady of Light's crochet and knitting group, Heart to Hands, is bringing joy and comfort to women and children of Hour Children this holiday season. With over two large bags filled with handmade crochet, knit, and loom hats, gloves and scarves, their gifts will keep the children and adults warm.

Heart to Hands now meets at the Best Life Senior Center on Farmers Blvd., after relocating from St. Pascal's parish hall to ensure accessibility for all members.

A special thank you goes to the Loomers of Rochdale Village Library, whose generous donation of loom-crafted items added even more love to this collection.

Together, these groups embody the true meaning of community—hands and hearts working in harmony to uplift others. If you would like to donate yarn to Heart to Hands, please contact the rectory.

“What Do You Have in Your Hands?”

CHRISTIAN GIVING IS EUCHARISTIC

When the Lord asked Moses, “What is that in your hand?” [Exodus 4:2], He invited Moses to recognise the power of what he already possessed. The staff he carried, ordinary and shaped by daily life, became extraordinary when he returned it to God in trust. This poignant question resonates throughout Scripture and finds its deepest meaning in the Eucharist, whose very essence is thanksgiving.

Time and again, God begins not with abundance, but with what is already held in grateful hands. A widow may possess only a small jar of oil, yet when she offers it in faith, it never runs dry. A young boy provides five loaves and two fish, and in Jesus’ hands, they transform into nourishment for thousands. Another widow places two small coins into the temple treasury, and the Lord sees in her gift the fullness of a grateful heart. In every instance, the gift may be small, yet the offering remains total. And in each case, thanksgiving unlocks God’s transformative power. This is the mystery we enter every time we approach the altar.

The bread and wine we offer are described as the “fruit of the earth and work of human hands.” They gather the ordinary substance of our lives; our labour, time, resources, joys, and struggles- and present them before God in gratitude. As St. Irenaeus taught, in offering these gifts, the Church returns creation itself to the Creator with thanksgiving, and God responds by filling them with His divine life.

At the heart of the Eucharist stands Christ Himself, who takes, gives thanks, breaks, and distributes. Thanksgiving is not merely spoken; it is enacted. What is offered is not lost but transformed. What is broken is not destroyed but shared. St. Augustine reminds us that at the altar, we offer not just bread and wine, but ourselves. Our lives, like the staff of Moses, the oil of the widow, the loaves of the child, and the coins of the poor, are taken up into Christ’s perfect thanksgiving to the Father. This is why Christian giving transcends mere practicality; it is Eucharistic. It flows from gratitude. St. John Chrysostom teaches that true generosity is born when the heart recognises that all it possesses is a gift, and that nothing placed in God’s hands is ever wasted.

Each Eucharist gently asks us again: What do you have in your hands today? What we bring may appear small, but when offered in thanksgiving, it becomes united to Christ’s self-gift. In His hands, our humble offerings become blessings for many. May the Eucharist continually transform us into a people of thanksgiving; grateful in prayer, generous in providing, and confident that God can achieve more with our gifts than we can ever imagine.

IMPORTANT PARISH REMINDERS

The Sacrament of Baptism for Infants

Parents may contact the parish office to arrange for the baptism of their child at least one month in advance. Infant Baptisms are held on the third Sunday of the month at one of our weekend masses. Parents must be registered in Our Lady of Light or the parish they attend and participate in a Baptismal Preparation class.

Religious Education for Children and Youth:

Location and Times: Our Parish Faith Formation program takes place on Sunday mornings, in person this year. For more information, please contact , Deacon Marcial Cordon Director of Faith Formation, at 718 528-1220 or email at dre101269@diobrook.org

Ages and Requirements: Our program welcomes children and youth who are three years old through High School. We accept and prepare children and youth who have not received the Sacraments.

Parental Responsibilities: Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, reminds us in his new General Directory for Catechesis that those being catechized can live their life in a simple and spontaneous way. We are called to accompany each other on a journey toward Christ, with parents/guardians taking the lead for their children. In addition to having an active participation in the faith formation of their children, Parents or Guardians are also expected to attend Mass with their children and to attend parental preparations for Sacraments.

Reception of Sacraments for School Aged Children: Parents who would like for their child to receive the Sacraments must register them in our parish Sacramental Preparation Program. Our Program requires that children attend and prepare for two complete and consecutive academic years prior to the reception of each Sacrament. The Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion is received beginning in grade 2 and up. The Sacrament of Confirmation requires attendance and preparation in our 2 year Confirmation Sacramental Preparation program. Confirmation preparation begins in grades 7 & 8. For each of the Sacraments, there is an extra fee, to cover the costs of the ceremonies. For more information, please contact, Deacon Marcial Cordon Director of Religious Education.

Reception of Sacraments for Adults (RCIA): Our Parish offers the RCIA program for those, ages 16 years and older, who are interested in becoming Catholic. It is also for those who have been baptized and in need of receiving the Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation. The Rite of Christian Initiation program is offered year-round and is also available for children ages 8 and older through the Rite of Christian Initiation Adapted for Children program. Please contact Deacon Marcial Cordon , Director of Faith Formation to register or for more information.

Continuing Faith Formation for Adults: Our parish provides opportunities for lifelong faith formation through small faith sharing groups and bible studies. Please check our website, bulletin or contact the Faith Formation Office for more information.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Since Catholic marriage requires a time of preparation, arrangements should begin at least six months before the proposed date of the wedding to allow for the Marriage Preparation Program. Registered, participating and contributing parishioners, not a third party, may contact the parish office to begin the process.

Pastoral Care of the Sick

If you are entering a hospital for surgery, experiencing a prolonged or serious illness, or are very weak due to advancement of age, call the parish office to arrange for the Sacraments of reconciliation, communion and anointing at home. We can also arrange for a Eucharistic Minister to continue to visit you with the Blessed Sacrament. We are here to serve you, please call.

Funerals

The family member or friend handling the funeral arrangements are asked to contact the pastor to arrange a consolation visit from one of the Priests. He will help you with any questions you may have with planning the Wake and Funeral Mass. The Parish wishes to be with you at this moment of need, all other arrangements involving the church must be initiated by the funeral director. Strict adherence to the Roman Catholic Ritual for Funerals will be followed in all parish involved activities..

Proof of Parish Participation

References and proof of parish residency for both civil and religious purposes can only be provided for registered parishioners. Catholic Schools offering a discount for children of parents who are active members of their parish usually require that the family be registered at least six months previously in their home parish. It is also assumed that the children are registered in the religious education program of the home parish.

Welcome
New
